

Help protect our countryside: Donate a prize to our charity auction

To mark 100 years of the Campaign to Protect Rural England, CPRE Gloucestershire are hosting an online charity auction to raise vital funds to protect our local countryside.

The auction will take place online between April and May 2026 and we warmly invite organisations to donate a prize. Donations might include a voucher, product, service or unique experience.

By contributing a prize, you will be helping to support a better countryside for future generations, while also benefiting from wide promotion across Gloucestershire through our membership and media channels.

To donate a prize or discuss how your organisation can be support our charity, please contact us at info@cpreglos.org.uk

Your support will make a lasting difference to our countryside.
